Public Financial Management

A Shiraka professional development course

The Netherlands invites senior government officials from the MENA region to apply for a professional development course on Public Financial Management (PFM), with a focus on Public Expenditure Management. Eligible countries for this course: Morocco, Tunisia, Jordan, Algeria, Libya, Iraq, Lebanon, Palestinian Territories, Mauritania and Egypt.

The objective of the course is for government officials working in the field of PFM to share their knowledge and skills enabling them to lead and inspire the modernisation of PFM in their home countries. The course also aims to strengthen participants' ties with the Netherlands and the Dutch government; especially between Dutch government service and their counterparts in the target countries.

Goals of the PFM professional development course

The Ministry of Finance of the Netherlands is organising the professional development course with the following aims:

- Gain comprehensive insight into the budget cycle of the Netherlands: from budget preparation to accountability;
- Learn about decentralized budget responsibility and the importance of independent institutions;
- Discuss with the Inspectorate of the Budget on best practices in monitoring, controlling and evaluating public expenditures;
- Bring your own country specific issues to the table for in-depth analysis and discussion.

Additionally, the course provides participants with an opportunity to develop a valuable network with other government officials from the MENA region and the Netherlands.

Course outline and content

The two-week training course is divided into two distinctive elements. It will focus in the first week on the public financial management system in the Netherlands. Public financial management concerns the mobilization of resources on the one hand and the management of expenditures on the other hand. The training course will center on the management of expenditures and the budget cycle, but will also touch upon taxation. Management starts with strategic planning, drafting budgets, execution, accounting and evaluation to complete a cycle.

The Dutch public financial management system is internationally acknowledged for its transparency and high level of decentralization. Strong independent institutions safeguard the system's transparency and independence whilst protecting it from excessive political and personal influence.

The financial system within the central government is to a large extent decentralized, i.e. line ministers are responsible for their own budget chapter and defend their budgets in parliament. Policy implementation and evaluation is largely mandated or delegated to agencies. The focus of the course is on the central government, as local government is a separate and largely autonomous tier of government. Moreover, the Netherlands has years of experience with programme based budgeting, which will also be an element of the course.

In the second week of the training, attention will shift to public financial management systems of the countries of the participants themselves and a number of case studies will be discussed.

The training course will have a practical and interactive character. This approach enhances knowledge sharing and strengthens the cooperation amongst the participants and the experts. The experts are senior Dutch government officials, who work on a daily basis in a financial function in the Netherlands.

Dates, location and language

The professional development course will take 2 weeks in total nonconsecutive.

Part I

19-23 September 2022
The Hague
The Netherlands

Part II

31 October - 4 November 2022
Location to be determined

The courses will be in English, with interpretation into Arabic. Participants are obliged to attend both parts in full. After completing the course, participants will receive a certificate.

Shiraka and the COVID-19 outbreak

If the international health and travel restrictions make it impossible to organise a training in the Netherlands, an alternative solution will be offered this could be an online training.

In case the training is organized online we expect participants to have good computer skills, sufficient access to a computer with a recent operating system and a good internet connection. (Participants must be able to use zoom, word, powerpoint etc.).

Costs and fees

The Dutch government will take care of all relevant costs for participants from the eligible countries. This includes international travel, board and lodging, visa and insurance, PCR tests and tuition fees for the course. The organisation of the training course will take care of your hotel and flight arrangements and an insurance.

All participants are responsible for the organisation and costs of travelling to the airport in their own country. Participants departing from an international airport outside their own country, will have to cover local travel expenses themselves and will be compensated for the international part of their journey. Participants are responsible for the organisation of their visa application, insurance and PCR tests. Participants have the obligation to comply with the Covid-19 (travel) measures and regulation of the Dutch Government, in force upon your arrival and stay in The Netherlands. For more information see: <https://www.government.nl/topics/coronavirus-covid-19/visiting-the-netherlands-from-abroad/checklist-entry>

In case of no-shows or cancellations within four weeks before the start of the first part of the training, the organisation has the right to claim all costs incurred from the participants' employer.
